How to Take This Course

Feel free to explore any presentation you want and follow your own order – but keep in mind that some concepts build on previous slides and may be explained earlier in the course.

Take your time with each presentation – most key ideas are explained clearly and footnotes are there to help you dive deeper if you're curious.

Make it stick – take notes and explain concepts to others to reinforce your understanding. Active engagement helps retain what matters most.

Don't stop here, go beyond the slides. Real learning happens when you take it further – complement with your own research and reach out to professionals and colleagues.

If something feels unclear or incomplete, don't hesitate to reach out to us. We will be happy to help: comillaspevcclub@comillas.edu

About Us – Comillas Private Equity & Venture Capital Club

WHAT WE DO

- ✓ Organize events and workshops featuring top industry professionals.
- ✓ Enhance networking between students and finance professionals.
- ✓ Share valuable insights on private equity, venture capital, and other alternative investments through educational content on social media.
- ✓ Promote learning through a hands-on peer-driven approach (via our Deal Analyst Program).

DEAL ANALYST PROGRAM

Our flagship peer-learning initiative, open to students from Universidad Pontificia Comillas. Each semester, selected applicants join small teams to work on real financial analysis projects – including investment reports on real or hypothetical deals as well as market research on sectors or trends. The program is designed to strengthen both analytical and soft skills in collaborative hands-on environment.

Students can apply at the beginning of each semester, so stay tuned through our social media and WhatsApp channels to not miss the next call.
